MINIMUM HARDWARE & SOFTWARE REQUIREMENTS

In relation to the Safety English Test – SET

Minimum Hardware Specification

The Safety English Test has been developed to run on the minimum hardware specification detailed in the table below:

Element	Requirement
Processor Speed	• 1.5 GHz
Available RAM	• 2 GB
Graphics/Video RAM	• 128 MB
Screen Resolution	• 1024 x 768 up to 1600 x 1200
Colour Depth	• 16 bit
Sound (Listen/Record)	• 16 bit audio capable card with speakers or headphones • Connected or integrated and enabled microphone
Online Bandwidth	• 1Mbps per session (For optimum performance)
Online Connectivity	• via HTTP & RTMP on TCP Port 80

Supported Software Platforms

The following software platforms are supported:

Element	Requirement
Operating System	• Microsoft Windows 7, 8 or 10
Browser[1]	• Microsoft Internet Explorer 11 or Microsoft Edge
Flash Player[2]	• 25 or above (latest recommended)

It is understood that there are no material technical delivery requirements other than those stated above.

---

[1] Atlas has taken all efforts to ensure that the Safety English Test product is likely to work with future releases of the specified browsers, however as we do not control how these browsers will function in the future we cannot guarantee future support.

[2] Atlas has taken all efforts to ensure that the Safety English Test product is likely to work with future releases of the Adobe flash player, however as we do not control how this plugin will function in the future we cannot guarantee future support.